

ANNOUNCEMENT

The UP President Edgardo J. Angara Fellowship (UPPEJA) Committee is now ready to accept proposals from interested UP faculty including Professor Emeritus.

The UPPEJA Fellowship was established during the 1236th meeting of the Board of Regents held on September 29, 2008 to promote high-level policy discussions and research on a wide range of topics that address national development goals and imperatives. The Fellowship includes the following areas: science and technology, health, education, agriculture, environment and natural resources, labor and employment, public finance and public administration, institutions and governance.

WHO MAY APPLY?

Regular (full time or part time) UP faculty and Professor Emeritus who has distinguished himself or herself in high-level policy research and who

- has track record in insightful analysis of national development issues
- is willing to participate actively in plotting strategic directions for a better Philippines
- possesses leadership qualities and has demonstrated commitment to service in either public or private sector
- has demonstrated integrity in all aspects of his/her personal and professional activities, and
- is known to be objective in his/her views and is non-partisan

ENTITLEMENTS

Successful nominee or applicant may go on full time detail to an appropriate government agency where he/she will undertake policy research, or to the UCIDS to pursue his/her policy research work for one academic year. He/she will continue to draw his/her salary and other entitlements attached to the position while on fellowship and shall be provided a monetary award of P500,000.
